Application

- All musicians, artists, clowns, jugglers, comedians, magicians, pantomimes, living statues etc. who like to perform on the street must make an application.
- Pflasterzauber Hildesheim will take place on two days – Friday, 4p.m. – 10 p.m. and Saturday, 12 a.m. – 10.30 p.m. On Saturday a gala will take place with all artists performing short acts. Participating artists must attend on both days of the festival.
- There will be no off-festival. Only declared and artists, who are invited by us are allowed to play.

Fare

- Normally Pflasterzauber Hildesheim assumes the fare from the place of departure before the festival up to the destination after the festival (amount appointed before). Pflasterzauber cannot assume fares from places far apart (if necessary an apportioning of costs might be possible with other festivals).
- Appointed fares will transferred after the festival (in Euro).

Accommodation

- Pflasterzauber Hildesheim caters for accommodation on Friday and Saturday including breakfast. After consulting Pflasterzauber further nights can be reserved until two weeks before the festival. The costs therefore will be paid by the artists.
- The accommodation is only for the performing members of the groups (no managers, no friends or family). We love to help you with the organization of extra accommodation.

Catering / Festival center

- Pflasterzauber Hildesheim takes care of a catering like a buffet for the artist on Friday and Saturday. For lunch it will be snacks, fruits and cake, in evening it will be a warm dinner (vegetarian, vegan or with meat). In an agreed appointment and for a low price members of the artists can take part at the meals. (It must be reserved at least one week before the festival.)
- Non-alcoholic drinks are available for free for the artist during the whole festival time.
- The festival office will be opened two hours after the end of the program on Friday and Saturday.
- A location for a “Get Together” will be available on Friday night and a party (Kneipenzauber with live acts) on Saturday night is planned.

Money and Income

- There will be no fixed salary. All artists earn their salary by hat.
- Pflasterzauber Hildesheim caters for good public relations. The system of “money in the hat” will be communing clearly. (If an assistant is necessary, please let us know.)
- All artists are allowed to sell their CDs, DVDs and other articles, which do have a connection to their performance, in their setting.

Performances/Settings

- An artist normally performing 2-5 sets a day (each 30-40 minutes).
- The place of setting changes after every performance except for fixed stages.
- Assistance if needed is available after consultation.
- Musicians or music groups are playing acoustic or light amplified with a maximum of 30 watt. It is not allowed to use big amplifiers. Electricity with 220 volt is available on every setting.
- Every setting provides an easy lighting surrounding..
- In case of raining weather Pflasterzauber is not able to pay for any compensation. But there will be places of setting independent of the weather, which guarantees much audience as well.
- The city of Hildesheim assumes no liability for bodily injuries and property damages that is associated with the activities of Pflasterzauber.
